From the Acting Collector of Madura, dated 24th In Consultation 8th April 1858. February 1858.

This Enam was held for reading the Veda's. The Agraharum, where this service was usually performed having been abandoned, and the last holder having died without issue, the Board, adverting to the views expressed by Government in para 3 of Extract Minutes Consultation, dated 19th August 1854 No. 972 Revenue Department, that such

C. B. 2d Vol. para. 39 Note 3. of 16th February 1852, No. 333, para. 3.

By Order,
(Signed) G. S. FORBES, Secretary.

No. 40. ORDER THEREON, No. 557; dated 1st May 1858.

The last holder of this enam having died without any issue, two claimants have presented themselves, but without any title to succeed beyond that of distant relationship. The one, who is a female, offers a substitute to perform the service attached to the enam, viz.

instructing in the Vedas, but he is described by the Tahsildar to be incompetent for the task; and although the other is described to be an able scholar, the Agraharum where the service has been usually performed, is said to be abandoned, and some to the Brahmins formerly inhabiting it having removed, some to an adjoining village, and some to Madura. In para. 3 of Extract Minutes Consultation 19th August 1854, No. 972, Government observed, with reference to grants of this nature, that they saw nothing in them to render it necessary to continue them in perpetuity. Bearing in mind, therefore this opinion, and looking to the circumstances of the case as noticed above, Government agree with the Board of Revenue that the lapsed enam should be resumed. The Board will issue instructions accordingly.

Acting Secretary to Government.
