The Government are aware of the object of the Board of Revenue in submitting the letter from the Collector of North Arcot dated 2nd March 1858 regarding the Naragundy Police to them. The Police under the orders of the Board issued with reference to Decree of Court to Coopiss Vaidoo, and after his death to his son Vengannah Naid who now holds it. In their proceedings dated 28 January last, No 411 they submitted the explanation required in para 1 of Extract Memo.

Nos. dated 20 November 57 No 1156, as do the circumstances under which the transfer of the Poll tax was authorized without reference to Government there the subject ended.

The Collector states that Vengannah Naidoo has not been registered as priest of the Karagumty Taluk.

"Police", but has been merely "placed in possession of it" pending the decision of the "Suder Udakut" and forwards copies of documents issued to him as well as to his father. The Government do not see anything in either of these documents in support of Mr Whittingham's version of them, and they do not appear in any way to imply temporary tenure.

3. The Government cannot refrain from remarking that some of the communications, ^{lately} addressed to them by the Board have been imperfectly made.

In

In the present case the letter of the collector was allowed to remain in their office for more than a month, at the end of which since they simply forward it, though the subject is one that requires a short review with an exposition of the objection with which it is referred to Government.
