SIR,

We have the honor to forward herewith a letter from Mrs. D. J. Lawder, Secretary to the Black Town Girls' Day School, applying for the exemption of the funds of that institution from Income Tax, which we request you will be so good as to lay before Government and communicate to us the order passed thereon.

From Mrs. D. J. LAWDER, Secretary to the Black Town Girls' Day School, to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 1st March 1861.

SIR,

1. I have the honor to request, that the funds and income of the Black Town Girls' Day School, it being a charitable Institution, may be exempted from the operation of the Income Tax Act.

2. The income of the school is derived from the subscriptions of friends to female education in Madras, and from the interest of Rupees 1,500 invested in Government Securities. The School was instituted for the purpose of affording the means of education to the children of East Indians in indigent circumstances. The small fees paid by the children do not, by any means, meet the expenditure of the school.

Under Section 133 of the Income Tax Act, the Governor in Council exempts the fund and income of the Black Town Girls' Day School, from the duties chargeable under the Act aforesaid.
