No. 32. ORDER THEREON, No. 755; dated 3rd June 1858.

The Honorable the Court of Directors remarked in para. 1 of their despatch in the Public Works Department dated 27th May 1856, No. 7, with reference to the claim advanced in a Memorial submitted by Palanyappah Tumberan to Rupees 7,430-12 as the surplus funds of the Trivalore Pagoda, that from the papers before them it would appear that the account of the Collector which shewed the balance of only Rupees 217-0-6 (the sum ordered to be paid to the Memorialist) extended from the close of Fusly 1256 to Fusly 1262, whereas the balance claimed by the Memorialist is alleged to have accrued in Fuslies 1251 to 1256, and desired that an explanation may be required from the Collector, and that if a mistake to the prejudice of the Memorialist had been made, it be at once set right. The explanation which was accordingly called for is now submitted by the Board of Revenue.

Ex. Mins. Con. 24th July 1856, No. 1251.

2. The Acting Collector states that though the account alluded to by the Honorable Court extends from the close of Fusly 1256 to Fusly 1262, it includes the balance at the credit of the Pagoda at the close of Fusly 1256, which was struck upon an adjustment of all the receipts and disbursements on account of the Institution from Fusly 1251 to 1256, and that therefore no mistake to the prejudice of the Memorialist has been made. Mr. Cherry further states that on a re-examination of the accounts, the balance at the close of Fusly 1256, and the other particulars alluded to in the account which has been the subject of the Court's Despatch, have been found to be correct. Under these circumstances it is clear that the claim of the Memorialist is inadmissible. These Proceedings will be reported to the Honorable Court in the usual course.
