Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 21st January 1870.

No. 224. Read the following letter from the Government Solicitor, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 22nd December 1869, No. 710 :—

I HAVE the honour to acknowledge the receipt of the Order of Government, noted in the margin, requesting me to ascertain the validity of Mrs. Rae's transactions with reference to the Estate of her late husband, as detailed in her letter to the Commissioner of Neilgherries, dated the 25th November 1869.

2.. From the letter above referred to, it would appear that Mrs. Rae, as the Administratrix of her late husband's Estate, has caused his Tea Plantation to be sold by public auction and purchased it herself; this mode of dealing with the Estate by Mrs. Rae, though not absolutely void in law, is still voidable at the instance of any other person interested in the property; the 270th Section of the Indian Succession Act X. of 1865 providing that "if an Executor or Administrator purchases either directly or indirectly any part of the property of the deceased, the sale is voidable at the instance of any other person interested in the property sold." I am therefore of opinion that it would not be advisable for Government to recognize Mrs. Rae's title either to the Estate left by her late husband or to the further grant of land now proposed to be made by Government, until she has obtained from the other persons interested in the deceased's Estate a Deed of Confirmation of the purchase of such Estate by herself, and a Release of all claim to be interested in the further grant of land now proposed to be made by Government.

No. 225. ORDER THEREON, 21st January 1870, No. 110.

Miscellaneous.

COMMUNICATED, through the Board of Revenue, to the Commissioner of the Neilgherries, who is requested to inform Mrs. Rae that she will be furnished with a Title-deed on her procuring the documentary evidence indicated in the concluding portion of the Government Solicitor's letter.
