Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 22nd July 1870.

No. 209. Read the following letter from the Superintendent of Revenue Survey, to the Acting Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Chepauk, 29th June 1870, No. 1,673-41 :—

Mr. H. O. C. Cardozo, the Senior First Assistant Superintendent of Revenue Survey, having returned from sick leave, I have the honour to recommend that he may be appointed to act as Deputy-Superintendent instead of Lieutenant Freeth, to whom he is much senior in the department.

2. I beg to report that I purpose employing Mr. Cardozo in Ganjam where the duties of superintendence are at present more important than in Tinnevelly, and will leave Lieutenant Freeth still in charge of the latter district.

No. 210. Order thereon, 22nd July 1870, No. 1,113.

Miscellaneous.

The Right Honourable the Governor in Council is of opinion that it is, as a rule, inexpedient to disturb existing officiating appointments on the return of senior officers from leave.

2. It will be necessary therefore for Mr. Cardozo to await another vacancy before he can be nominated to officiate as a Deputy-Superintendent of Survey. His claim to a permanent vacancy in the grade would, however, of course be considered superior to that of Lieutenant Freeth.

3. The employment of Mr. Cardozo in the Ganjam District as proposed by Colonel Priestley is approved.

Under-Secretary to Government.
