SIR,

With reference to the remarks contained in paragraph 5 of the Proceedings of Government, dated 23rd November 1860, No. 2,221, I have the honor to state, that as the enclosures to my letter of the 13th ultimo explained the facts fully, and as the demand of Mr. Burton was in contravention of the terms originally proposed by himself, I thought it proper to lay all the papers that had been transmitted to me before the Board and Government, for their consideration, instead of recapitulating the contents of them in my letter above quoted.

Ordered to be submitted to Government, with reference to their Proceedings quoted by the Collector.
