Government tests, not having passed the Translation Test, but he has succeeded in all the other subjects.
And it has been brought to my notice that Mr. J. J. Daines who was gazetted as Deputy Collector and Magistrate in the Salem District in the Port of George Gazette of the 30th January 1877, is in a similar position to Mr. Green as regards not having passed the translation test.

2. Mr. Green has proved himself in his present position a most methodical and business-like officer and well deserves promotion.

3. His service book is sent herewith.
