Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
30th March 1877.

Famine Relief.

No. 922-A. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 22nd March 1877, No. 1,298:—

Read the following letter from A. J. STUART, Esq., Acting Collector of Tinnevelly, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Shermadevi, 16th March 1877, No. 176.

I HAVE the honor to report that applications for advances for wells are coming in fast, and have amounted to the sum noted in the margin, so far as reports have yet reached me; while up to the 10th instant Rs. 12,000 have been actually advanced for this purpose. The balance in hand of the Relief Funds was Rs. 25,813 on the 10th, of which it is probable that unless relief-works are stopped Rs. 5,000 at least will be required for relief purposes up to the end of the month, and the remaining Rs. 20,813 will be expended in advances for wells. Under these circumstances, I request the Board will be pleased to make a further allotment as early as is convenient to enable me to keep the Tahsildars in funds for wells and relief-works, &c., going. I presume the Board will inform the Accountant-General and that I need not do so.

Rs. 49,000.

2. If the Board approve of allowing this most useful form of expenditure free scope, I think the allotment might be 50,000 Rupees.

A GRANT of Rs. 20,000 is sanctioned.

2. The Collector will see that applicants are made to understand that the grants are to be applied to the purpose for which they are made, and that the time within which they are to be expended is properly settled. He is requested to inquire and satisfy himself whether so great a demand is really bonâ fide.
