M.R.O. 14—10,000—21-4-22

MADRAS RECORD OFFICE.

Government of Madras.

Revenue DEPARTMENT.

G.O. No. 135 — Press / ~~Mis.~~

269

Dated 18 — 1 — 1861.

Not to be folded or roughly handled

No. 269. PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Dated 18th January 1861, No. 135.

Read order of Government, dated 11th January 1861, No. 77 :—

1. This order appointed the Consulting Engineer for Railways to be a Special Assessor under the Income Tax for Railway salaries, under supposed instructions from the Government of India; but on reconsideration of the order of that Government on the subject, it is seen that it did not enjoin such appointments but only expressed the opinion that they were not objectionable.

2. The arrangement, however, is inconvenient in some respects; and it is also opposed to the express provision made for the case by Rule 4, Clause 100 of the Act. The Government resolve therefore to cancel the appointment, and they direct the publication of the following Notification in the Official Gazette.

NOTIFICATION.

The order of the 11th instant, appointing the Consulting Engineer for Railways to be a Special Assessor under the Income Tax Act for the purpose of assessing the Tax on the salaries of the servants of the Railway Companies, is hereby cancelled, and the arrangements previously in force for making such Assessments under Rule 4, Clause 100 of the Act will be revived and will continue in operation.

(Signed) J. D. BOURDILLON,
Secretary to Government.

Rev Dept

N° 1357

Proceedings of the Madras Government under date the 18th January 1861.

N°

Read order of Govt
dated 11 January 1851 N° 47.

This order appointed the Consulting Engineer for Railways to be a Special Appeal under the Income Tax for Railway Salaries, under suspended instructions from the Government of India, but on reconsideration of the order of that Government on the subject, it is seen that it did not enjoin such appointments but only expected the opinion

opinion that they were not objectionable.

2. The arrangement however is inexpedient in some respects; and it is also opposed to the express provision made for the same by Rule 4 Clause 100 of the Act. The Government resolve therefore to cancel the appointment, and they direct the publication of the following notification in the Official Gazette.

Notification

The order of the 11th Instant appointing the Consulting Engineer for Railways to be a special Assessor

Assessor under the Income Tax Act for the purpose of assessing the tax on the salaries of the servants of the Railway Companies, is hereby cancelled, and the arrangements previously in force for making such assessments under Rule 4, Clause 100 of the Act will be revived and will continue in operation

H. Bird
President of the Income Tax Committee Dist. 19.
2. Consulting Engr. for Railways
1 Collr. of Tanjore
3 Financial Railway Dept

Relative to Consulting the Consulting Engr appointed as Assessor of Rlys
under the Income Tax Act

11th Jan 1861
No 1951.

Revenue 1861 Departt

Proc: of Govt for January

No 135.

Proc: of the Madras Govt

of 18th January 1861.

From the Consulting Engr
for Railways 29 November 1860
No 3449.

Appointment of the Consulting Engineer for Rail-way to be a Special Assessor under the Income tax Act for the purpose of assessing the Tax on the Salaries of the servants of the Railway Companies cancelled and the arrangements previously in force for making such assessment revived.

No 269

L