SURGEON-GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Indian Medical Department,

Fort Saint George,

20 April 1877

My dear Ganshin, 1376-A 13

Your marginal
note to accompany G.O.
No 1376-A of 9 April has just come in, & although my people consulted the pay office I find that they have overlooked the fact, that from the 30 March Capt Surgeon, McHally & Laurence will be entitled to the next higher rate of remuneration.

paying Rs 600 per mensem, instead of Rs 450 which they have hitherto been drawing.

This increase is due to their service being over 5 years, & as they would lose by being detailed for sanitary duty unless the augmented rate of pay is secured to them, I write to ask you to be good enough to make the necessary correction in the marginal note.

The memo should read thus ^A Surp. Medicaly 3rd Regt. Rs 600 + 14 ¹³⁷⁶ batta, Rs 5 per diem, & travelling allowances.

"Lawrence 2nd Regt. Rs 600 + do do do.

It is also better ^{inform you} to ~~note~~ that if Dr. Rogers-Harrison be retained on this duty after the 1st Oct. next, he also will become entitled to the higher rate of Rs 600 per mensem subsequent to that date, as having completed 5 years service.
As matters now stand this
& the names of the remaining

6 on the list are quite correct. I enclose for ready reference a revised copy of your printed memorandum, regret for the oversight on your part Sedie.
