*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,

Famine Relief.

No. 342-A. Read the following letter from J. F. PRICE, Esq., Acting Collector of Cuddapah, to J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., Additional Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort St. George, dated Budwail, 16th April 1877, Extra No. 744 —

I HAVE the honor to enclose, for the orders of Government, a letter from the Acting Sub-Collector.

2. From what I have seen and heard of Mr. Connew I do not think very much of him. He is, however, young and might improve.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

From J. D. B. GRIBBLE, Esq., Acting Sub-Collector of Cuddapah, to J. F. PRICE, Esq., Acting Collector of Cuddapah, dated Sarimadugu, 9th April 1877, No. 84-B.

MR CONNEW, the brother-in-law of the late Mr. Cotton, the Relief Officer in charge of the Rayachoti Taluq, was appointed by me as Superintendent of Relief-works in the Kadiri Taluq on a salary of Rs. 60 and Rs. 20 horse allowance.

2. Owing to the death of Mr. Cotton, Mr. Connew has had to resign his appointment in order to accompany Mrs. Cotton back to Central India. Mr. Connew is a young man of about 20, who has just come out from England. He had some training in Surveying and Levelling under his brother, and during the short time he has been on the relief-works has done his best to give satisfaction. He asks that his present appointment may be kept open for him, as now that his brother-in-law is dead, he sees no other means of gaining a livelihood. A temporary appointment, however, on relief-works with so small a salary is scarcely likely to enable Mr. Connew to maintain a respectable position, although it might have done so had his brother-in-law been alive to help him. Considering that Mr. Cotton died in the discharge of his duty, and leaves his family and Mr. Connew quite unprovided for, I would ask to be allowed to reappoint Mr. Connew, on his return from Central India, to a salary of Rs. 100 and horse allowance, and would respectfully ask the Government to consider his claims to be appointed to some post of a more permanent character than the one he now holds.

No. 342-B. ORDER THEREON, 16th April 1877, No. 1,434-A.

Miscellaneous.

THE Governor in Council is unable to accede to Mr. Gribble's proposals.

Mr. Connew - Declining to accept of Mr.
Gribble's proposal to resign his appointment as Relief officer in the Cuddapah District as he returns from Central India.

his present appointment may be kept open for him, as now that his brother-in-law is dead he sees no other means of gaining a livelihood. A temporary appointment however on Relief works with so small a salary is scarcely likely to enable Mr. Connors to maintain a respectable position, although it might have done so had his brother-in-law been alive to help him.

Considering that Mr. Cotton died in the discharge of his duty and leaves his family and Mr. Connors quite unprovided for, I would ask to be allowed to re-appoint Mr. Connors on his return from Central India to a salary of Rs 100 and horse allowance & would respectfully ask the Government to consider his claims to be appointed to some post of a more
