of this Government on the question raised in paragraphs 11 and 12 of his despatch, No. 59, 25th January 1876, that before the subject could be fully discussed, indications of impending scarcity had shown themselves. Those indications have unfortunately been fully realised in the famine now prevailing throughout the greater portion of the Presidency.

2. Under such circumstances, His Grace the Governor in Council is of opinion that the present time is not one for discussing questions and deliberately discussing questions the results of the calamity which has befallen this Presidency and the emergency gained therein. His Grace will, however, make the matter one of serious consideration and examination so soon as the propriety of suspending judgment circumstances admit. He considers the propriety of suspending judgment for the present will readily commend to the Government of India.

SIR,—Referring to your letter, dated the 21st January 1876, No. 2-39, requesting an expression of the views of the Secretary of State in paragraphs November 1875, I am directed to state discussed indications of impending scarcity have unfortunately been fully realised in the greater portion of the Presidency.

His Grace the Governor in Council is of opinion that the present time is not one for discussing questions and deliberately discussing questions the results of the calamity which has befallen this Presidency and the emergency gained therein. His Grace will, however, make the matter one of serious consideration and examination so soon as the propriety of suspending judgment circumstances admit. He considers the propriety of suspending judgment for the present will readily commend to the Government of India.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
