2. In the original scheme sanctioned the marginal roads had only Rs. 110 per mile for storage of metal, and this amount has been nearly expended.

3. I propose to continue the same work and to store 440 cubic yards of metal per mile at a cost of Rupees 220, and also to store 880 cubic yards of gravel per mile at a further cost of Rupees 110. On the Palladam and Avenashy road alone I have raised the estimate to 880 cubic yards of metal.

The additional expenditure likely to be incurred is Rupees 34,595.

Two hundred and twenty cubic yards of metal is quite insufficient, and the provision of gravel now we should not be able to make the roads when relief ceases without additional expenditure over and above the maintenance from Local Funds, and Local Funds will then be over-taxed.

Rupees 17,080 of the amount now asked for has, I observe, been submitted for the sanction of the Board.

I have ordered estimates to be prepared for repairing ten tanks, and as soon as ready the work will be commenced and the nearest road-works stopped; have also directed the Tahsildar to start at once the seven remaining
