Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
30th April 1877.

Famine Relief.

Read the following papers:—

No. 719. Telegram from the Additional Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, to the Collectors of Bellary, Cuddapah, and Kurnool, dated 7th March 1877, No. 160.

Try and find out what becomes of large number of persons leaving relief-works.

No. 719-A. From J. H. MASTER, Esq., Colr. of Bellary, to J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., Additional Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Nagalur, 15th April 1877, No. 157.

In reply to the telegram of 7th ultimo, received from Government (as per margin), I have the honor to state that in most cases deserters from the relief-works return after a short time. They generally betake themselves to their villages and occupy themselves for a time in their ordinary pursuits, but ultimately return either to the same work or to some adjoining one. Emigration into the adjacent districts is not practised as a rule.

No.—, dated 7th March, "Try and find out what becomes of large number of persons leaving relief-works."
