No. 17B. From R. W. BARLOW, Esq., Collector of the Chingleput District, to J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., Additional Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort St. George, dated Saidapet, 24th April 1877, No. 76.

ADVERTING to the Proceedings of Government, Revenue Department, No. 1,487, dated 19th instant, received on Saturday, I have the honor to report that I yesterday (Monday) visited the point where the Northern Trunk Road crosses the Cortelliar, and selected, in consultation with Lieutenant Lockyer, a very good site for a camp on the right bank of the river immediately to the east of the Trunk Road and in full view of the same. The ground lies high, and is fairly open, and good water obtainable close by.

2. The Tahsildar is now on the spot collecting materials, and I have directed Lieutenant Lockyer to camp there forthwith. By Saturday I hope to see one or two huts ready, and meantime have ordered the Tahsildar to feed all destitute comers there, and to make the best temporary arrangement he can for their accommodation till the same are ready.
