Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 8th June 1869.

Read again Proceedings of Government, dated 12th May 1869, No. 800.

No. 37. Read also the following letter from the Acting Registrar General of Assurances, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 31st May 1869, No. 50.

In acknowledging the receipt of the Proceedings of Government, dated 12th instant, No. 800, calling for my opinion regarding Rule 136 of the "Rules for the Registration of Assurances," I have the honour to state that, as far as I can learn, the only object of the provision in question is to ensure the size of the map or plan tendered for registration being of a uniform size with the sheets of the register into which it is eventually bound or pasted. However desirable this may be to make the registers uniform, neat, and compact, I know that the requirement in its practical operation causes great inconvenience to people, and is very generally complained of. There is no reason why a map, which is larger than 18 × 12 inches, should not be folded down to the required size, as is the case very often with maps, plans, or illustrations even in printed books. I would, therefore, abrogate the rule altogether.

No. 38. ORDER THEREON, 8th June 1869, No. 945.

His Excellency the Governor in Council resolves, under the circumstances stated by the Acting Registrar General of Assurances in the foregoing letter, to repeal Clause 136 of the Rules for the Registration of Assurances in this Presidency under the Indian Registration Act of 1865.

"No map or plan tendered for registration shall exceed eighteen inches in length or twelve inches in breadth."

2. The Acting Registrar General will be requested to submit, for publication in the Gazette, a draft of a Notification repealing the clause in question.
