Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 27th November 1876.

No. 504. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 24th November 1876, No. 8,950:—

Read the following papers:—

From G. W. CRESSWELL, Esq., Inspector of Post-offices, Nellore Division, to F. R. H. SHARP, Esq., Acting Collector of Nellore, dated 6th November 1876, No. 8,700.

In continuation of my letter, No. 3,457, dated 30th October 1876, I take the liberty of again bringing before your notice the necessity for allowing the poorly-paid employes of the Postal Department an increase of pay in the shape of a money-allowance during the continuance of the famine.

2. I beg to submit two statements showing to whom the allowance may be made:—

Statement A, District Post Employes.—To 27 drawing more than 5 Rupees an extra Rupee may be allowed and to 71 drawing 5 Rupees an allowance of Rupees $1\frac{1}{2}$ may be made: cost per month Rupees $133\frac{1}{2}$.

Statement B, Imperial Post Employes.—To 277 drawing more than Rupees 5 but less than $10\frac{1}{2}$ Rupees an extra Rupee may be allowed, and to 29 drawing 5 Rupees an allowance of Rupees $1\frac{1}{2}$ may be made: cost per month Rs. $320\frac{1}{2}$.

Total cost, Rupees 454.

3. Rupees 454 will be a heavy monthly charge on the revenues, yet notwithstanding I beg you will not object to incur it, as it is, of the greatest importance to preserve the efficiency of the department, which otherwise would be disorganised by desertions, &c. The men are already reduced to one meal a day and are pouring in petitions for relief and representing their hard lot in having to work half-fed. This when rice is twice as dear as it used to be; should it become dearer, their state would be deplorable, and the allowance now asked for perhaps doubled.

4. Another outcry is for water, and I beg to suggest, as Mr. Theobald has already suggested to you, that some of the relief works should be made in the direction of providing wells along the roads at runners' stages.

SUBMITTED for the favorable consideration of the Board of Revenue as regards the District Post Runners. No spare funds are available locally.

NELLORE,
13th November 1876.

(Signed) F. R. H. SHARP,
Acting Collector.

From H. G. TURNER, Esq., Acting Postmaster-General, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Madras, 14th November 1876, No. 380-18.

I HAVE the honor to request sanction for a temporary increase of Rupees 2
Eighty-four Peons and twenty-one Runners. a-month to the pay of District Post Peons and Runners as per margin in the Bellary
District as compensation on account of the prevailing famine.

2. I understand that similar provision has been made for the Revenue servants.

3. It appears that only about Rupees 34 (the provision for letter-boxes) is available as the unspent balance of the District Post grant in Bellary besides the Rupees 100 allotted for contingencies in that district, which also appears to be unspent. But I conclude that the famine allowance in this case will be defrayed from some special source of the general budget.

SUBMITTED for the orders of Government.

2. The Board consider that in those districts in which an increase of pay has been sanctioned in the case of public servants on the Revenue establishment a similar indulgence should be granted to Postal Peons whether on the Imperial or District Postal Establishments. It has already been decided that the charge is to be debited to the source from which the establishment is paid. As regards the application from the Collector of Nellore, the Board observe that their Proceedings of the 11th November 1876, No. 2,806, approved in G.O., dated 14th November 1876, No. 1,671, had not reached the Collector when he wrote. He will see that his application on behalf of the Revenue officials was considered premature.

Supernumerary Post Employees. To 277 drawing more than Rs 5 but less than $10\frac{1}{2}$ Rupees, an extra rupee may be allowed + to 29 drawing 5 Rs an allowance of $1\frac{1}{2}$ Rs may be made. Cost per month $320\frac{1}{2}$.

Total cost Rs 454.

Rs 454 will be a heavy
