REFERRING to your telegram of yesterday, received in the evening, I have the honor to state that the Agent of Messrs. Arbuthnot & Co. here can put down rice for Mr. Ross at Tadpatri,

2. He has already forwarded, at my request based upon instructions passed by the Collector upon Mr. Ross's letter, 500 bags of rice consigned to the Tahsildar of Tadpatri.

3. I wrote demi-officially to Mr. Ross, saying that I could not get him cholum or ragi, but had sent rice, and asking him to let me know if he wanted more. I have received no reply, but a letter to the Collector passed through my hands a day or two afterwards, in which Mr. Ross stated that he had succeeded in purchasing grain for present use. I therefore did nothing further.
