(Signed) T. J. KNOX,
Acting Collector.

3rd May 1860.

This Officer has been my Sheristadar for 18 months, and has acquitted himself in every way to my entire satisfaction. He is clever at all his work and very painstaking, and I have no doubt he will soon rise.

(Signed) H. G. SMITH,
Sub-Collector.

OOSSOOR, June 1862.

Extract from a letter from H. A. Brett, Esq., Collector of Salem to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated the 22nd June 1862.

A. Kistnamachary was educated partly at a Private School at Chittoor and partly at the High School at Madras. Since I recorded my opinion in November 1858 regarding his conduct and present qualifications for the Public Service, he has been appointed at my recommendation to the office of Sheristadar in the Sub-Collector's Office. I consider that Kistnamachary is fully qualified for the office of a Deputy Collector in any of the departments. Kistnamachary was by birth a Bramin, but during the time he was prosecuting his studies at the High School he adopted Christianity. In the course of the 7 years he has been employed in different offices in the Revenue Department in this District he has earned for himself by steadiness of character and patient perseverance in all official duties, the good will of every one, official or non-official who has had occasion to notice his conduct.

(Signed) H. A. BRETT,
Collector.

SALEM, 22*nd June* 1862.

Painstaking, willing, intelligent, well educated and improving, also worthy of full confidence. He has been already recommended for a Deputy Collectorship.

(Signed) H. S. THOMAS,
Acting Sub-Collector.

30*th August* 1862.

Extract from a letter to the Honorable D. Arbuthnot, Collector of Salem, from H. G. Smith, Esq., Sub-Collector of Salem.

Sir.—With reference to your letter dated 22nd Instant No. 502 enclosing a Takeed to the Tahsildar of Darampoory directing his dismissal, I have the honor to inform you that I have appointed my Sheristadar A. Kristnamachary to that post and trust you will forward the same to the Board of Revenue for their approval.

The characters and services are herewith sent, and any comment from me would be superfluous, as he is already so well known to one Member of the Board (Mr. Brett.)

I have, &c.,

(Signed) H. G. SMITH,
Sub-Collector.

Extract from a letter from the Honorable D. Arbuthnot, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue.

With reference to the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, &c. * * * *

I have the honor to enclose copy of a letter from Mr. Smith, Sub-Collector (in whose Division the Dhurmapuri Taluq is situated) nominating A. Kistnamachary his Sheristadar for the vacant office.

2. From the enclosed Service Register, the Board will see that Kistnamacharry's service extends over a period of eight years, and that he has earned a good repulation, I therefore recommend that the Sub-Collector's nomination may be confirmed by the Board.

Extract from a letter from the Honorable R. S. ELLIS, C. B., Collector of Madras, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 22nd June 1862, No. 227.

5. I am very well satisfied with the intelligence and industry of A. Kistnamachary, who in a few months, when he shall have acquired a thorough knowledge of the peculiar tenures of this District, and of the records of the few past years, will be of very great assistance to me.

Excellent English scholar, intelligent, and will, I doubt not with more experience, prove very useful. I received much assistance from him.

(Signed) G. BANBURY.
Acting Collector.

Collector.

30*th October* 1864.

Kistnamachary the Sheristadar of the Madras Collectorate informs me that he is a candidate for a Deputy Collectorship.

I beg to record herewith my most hearty wishes for his success, as I entertain the very highest opinion of his talents and of his zeal in the Public Service.

In 1864 I had been only a short time in this District, and could not then therefore say, what I can now conscientiously do: viz., that Kristnamacharry is in my opinion fully qualified to fulfil with credit to himself and profit to the Government any of the duties of a Deputy Collector.

(Signed) E. G. R. FANE,
Collector of Madras.

A very good English scholar possessed of considerable ability and of extensive revenue experience. His knowledge of the District has been a great assistance to me.
