Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 23rd February 1870.

No. 265. Read the following Endorsement of the Accountant-General, dated Fort Saint George, 25th January 1870, No. 333 :—

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 12th January 1870, No. 223.

Read the following letter from the Officiating Collector of Madura, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 9th December 1869, No. 380.

WITH reference to the correspondence noted in the margin, I have the honour to state that P. Subbier, Sub-division Sheristadar, acted as Sheristadar of my Office from the 6th February to the 31st July 1869, both dates inclusive, but received only 150 rupees a-month out of 250 rupees, the salary of the office;

To Board, 20th November 1868, No. 295.
From „ 14th January 1869, „ 214.
To „ 12th February „ „ 40.
From „ 18th March „ „ 1,871.
To „ 5th April „ „ 117.
From „ 23rd June „ „ 4,524.

because the Accountant-General objected to allow the remainder, as Subbier's promotion was not sanctioned by the Board.

2. Although my nomination of Subbier did not meet with the approval of the Board, yet as Subbier has actually performed the duties of the office, pending the Board's final orders, I consider that he is entitled to the pay; and I therefore request sanction to disburse to him Rupees 582-2-3, being the remainder of his pay as Sheristadar.

3. During the time Subbier thus acted as Sheristadar, my Vernacular Head Clerk, Ramanjulu Naidoo, acted as Sub-division Sheristadar for him, and drew the full pay of that office from the 12th of February to the 2nd of August; but the Accountant-General has since refused to allow him more than 100 rupees per mensem, being the full pay of his permanent appointment and a deputation allowance of twenty per cent. of the Sub-division Sheristadar's pay, and has retrenched him in Rupees 203-3-7, being the difference between the pay of the Sub-division Sheristadar and the amount allowed by the Accountant-General from the 1st April to the 2nd August 1869. As the circumstances under which Ramanjulu Naidoo was ordered to act were exceptional, as will be seen from the accompanying copy of a letter received from the Acting Sub-Collector, I beg to recommend that the Accountant-General be instructed to withdraw the said retrenchment.

4. I here beg to inform the Board that if the allowances I now ask for be granted, no expense above the normal cost of the establishments will thereby be entailed on Government.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

From the Acting Sub-Collector, to the Acting Collector of Madura, dated camp at Shembaganoor, 13th November 1869, No. 366.

DURING the time (from February to August) that my Sheristadar, Subbier, was doing the duties of Sheristadar in your Office, your Revenue Head Clerk, Ramanjulu Naidoo, was doing Subbier's work in my Office, and during the whole time was drawing the full pay (Rupees 150 per mensem) of a Sub-division Sheristadar. The Accountant-General has now retrenched from Ramanjulu Naidoo's pay the sum of Rupees 203-3-7, being the difference, from April 1 to August 2, of the full pay of the post, and the deputation allowance to which he was entitled under the new rules. In this, I think the Accountant-General is wrong, inasmuch as Ramanjulu Naidoo's case is not an ordinary one of one Uncovenanted Servant acting for another. In fact, the case is thus: the Sheristadar of your Office quitted the service; in his stead you nominated my Sheristadar, Subbier, not to act, but as the permanent incumbent of the vacant post, subject to the confirmation of your appointment by the Board of Revenue. Instead of Subbier, I nominated Ramanjulu Naidoo as the permanent Sheristadar of my Office, under the same conditions as above. The arrangements thus made did not meet with the approval of the Board; but under the circumstances, I do not doubt that Government would have no objection to grant Ramanjulu Naidoo the full pay of the post he occupied for a space of six months. If you agree with me, I request you will take steps for the removal of the retrenchment order issued by the Accountant-General.

2. I may add that Ramanjulu Naidoo is fully deserving of this indulgence, as he did his work generally well, and, in particular, gave me great assistance in the conduct of Jummahbundy, which was this year a more than usually arduous and responsible task, in consequence of the heavy remissions which were rendered necessary by the failure of last year's rains.

THE Board accord retrospective sanction to the employment of Subbier as Acting Sheristadar of the Huzur, but, under the rules, he cannot receive more than twenty per cent. of the full pay of the office, as a deputation allowance.

2. The case of Ramanjulu Naidoo is different, because the salary of the post in which he officiated was only Rupees 150. Under the circumstances mentioned by the Collector and Sub-Collector, the Board resolve to address Government, through the Accountant-General, and recommend that full pay be passed to him.

RAMANJULU NAIDOO may, under the orders of Government of India, 12th July 1869, No. 1,821, published in the Fort Saint George Gazette of 4th August 1869, page 151, be allowed to draw full pay.
