Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 23rd January 1877.

No. 700. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 11th January 1877 :—

Read the following letter from R. W. BARLOW, Esq., Collector of the Chingleput District, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Saidapet, 8th January 1877, No. 7.

With reference to the Board's Miscellaneous No. 155, received yesterday, communicating G.O., dated the 4th instant, No. 28, stating that Government are not disposed to alter the site originally selected for the Junction Canal at Adayar, I have the honor to report that I have just arranged to rent the land required from the owners for six or nine months, the period named by the Executive Engineer, and have informed him of the same, so that no recourse is necessary to the provisions of Act X of 1870.

SUBMITTED for the information of Government.

My dear Robinson

The Wudders who are to be employed on the Junction Canal are inhabitants of Madras and its suburbs and no special arrangements appear to be required for their Collection.

Surely the selection of a certain class of distressed labourers for a work to which they are specially adapted, does not put it out of the category of Famine Relief Work.

It is a wise arrangement to provide specially for these Waddars to the exclusion of the outcast Villagers, for whom work is likewise being locally provided.

I think the 15 day of Canal, between the

Adyar River Greenway's Road Superintendence and that next day our first party ought to be at work. I think they should go ahead.

I would open the Hallow Canal works north of Pennair to Locals as well as Imported Famine Coolies.
