Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 23rd January 1877.

No. 725. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 15th January 1877, Miscellaneous No. 509.

Read Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, dated 12th January 1877, No. 107, forwarding copy of a telegram sent to Government, of India stating that the actual relief expenditure up to 31st December last is not available, as the accounts have not yet been received.

THE Board respectfully beg to be informed what accounts are referred to in the Government telegram and what they are expected to furnish. It is observed that, as regards a large portion of the expenditure, the Board have no information or control whatever, viz., the outlay on establishments and the purchase and transport of grain, and that, as regards direct relief, the returns for the 30th December which purport to show outlay up to that date and which contain all the information at the Board's disposal were submitted to Government on the 6th instant. Government have arranged with the Accountant-General to procure complete statements of expenditure daily and the Board furnish statements of their sanctions to that officer, who is alone in a position to give the information asked for by the Government. The returns made by the Accountant-General are not communicated to the Board.

Acting Secretary.

No. 726. ORDER THEREON, 23rd January 1877, No. 334.

Miscellaneous.

THE account referred to is that relating to actual expenditure in connection with relief works. The Government are aware that the Board are not in possession of complete information on the point, and a reference to the Accountant-General elicited the reply that he also had not the account. The daily account furnished by the Accountant-General shows only the total grants, not actual expenditure.

2. All Government Orders relating to establishments, together with copies of the Accountant-General's daily statement, will be communicated to the Board.
