Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 23rd January 1877.

No. 735. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 18th January 1877, Miscellaneous No. 645:—

Read the following letter from J. KELSALL, Esq., Acting Sub-Collector in charge, Godavery District, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Cocanada, 10th January 1877, No. 8.

I HAVE the honor to report that Mr. Maltby, Head Assistant Collector, whose application for leave to Europe on medical certificate was forwarded to the Board on 28th ultimo, leaves by to-morrow's steamer to appear before a Medical Board at Madras.

2. He has given over charge of his office to Mr. Tate, whom I have, subject to the Board's sanction, placed in charge of the Head Assistant's Division.

3. Judging from Mr. Tate's position on the list, it seems not unlikely that he will be appointed by Government to act as Head Assistant, and this will leave the district without an Assistant. In any case there will be no Assistant till a fresh Head Assistant arrives, and it may be difficult to find one just at present when additional officers are required in the famine districts.

4. Under these circumstances, I beg to make the following proposal:—
H. Subbarayer, the new Salt Deputy Collector, has not yet arrived. I hear that he is at Delhi, and may be expected about the 25th. The Huzur Sarishtadar, Parupalli Pundarikashudu, was appointed to act as Salt Deputy Collector during his absence. I request that when he is relieved by Subbarayer, he may be kept on as Additional Deputy Collector so long as there is no Assistant, in the district under G.O., No. 535, dated 22nd April 1876. Mr. Hope approved of this before leaving.

SUBMITTED for the orders of Government.

No. 736. ORDER THEREON, 23rd January 1877, No. 339.

Miscellaneous.

THE Government remark that the Standing Order entitles the Collector to the services of a temporary Deputy Collector, when there is no Assistant Collector, other than any Assistant Collector who may be engaged in the duties of an absent Head Assistant, in the district.

2. The Sarishtadar will be appointed as temporary Deputy Collector on being relieved of his present salt duties. Intimation of the date on which this takes place should be made by the telegraph.
