Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department
4th January 1877

No. 60. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 30th December 1876, Miscellaneous No. 11, 47 :-

Read the following letter from H. LEFANU, Esq., Acting Head Assistant Collector of Salem, to C. T. LONGLEY, Esq., Collector of Salem, dated Thiruthamalai, 29th June 1876, No. 288.

In February last I gave a double-barreled rifle and fowling-piece on commission sale to Subramania Chetty, the shop-keeper at Tripatore, Rupees 200 being the price which I wanted for them.

2. He had an offer for them from Balaji Rao which I would not allow him to accept, and he has now made me an offer himself of Rupees 180. Under the provisions of the Government Order (not in my Office) on the subject, I have the honor to report this for the orders of Government.

3. The guns are in an Oak case, and have interchangeable stocks, and were made to order by Messrs. Trulock and Harris, at a cost of 90 guineas, for Sir Dominic Corrigan from whose son I bought them.

SUBMITTED, through the Board of Revenue, for the orders of Government.

SALEM,
4th December 1876.
