No. 72. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 2nd December 1868 :—

Read the following letter from the Collector of Trichinopoly, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, Madras, dated Trichinopoly, 12th November 1868, No. 220 :—

Government Order, No. 2,239, dated 22nd August 1868.
Board's Proceedings, No. 6,197, dated 28th idem.

1. With reference to the correspondence marginally noted, I have the honor to state that the late Runjanagoody Jaghiredar's grandson has begged me to request Government to allow his mother Zora Begum to proceed to Vellore, and draw her pension there for the rest of her life. She has relations at Vellore, and, as far as I can learn, her statement is true that Vellore will be a cheaper and more suitable residence for her remaining days, than her present isolated home at Runjanagoody. Mr. Longley does not say why he would not recommend the transfer, and it appears to me that as she is "old, blind, and imbecile," it is very reasonable that she should be where her friends and relations can look after her.

2. Even supposing there should be any sinister motive in the background, it might be as effectually attempted here, as in Vellore; but the checks against misbehaviour exist equally in both places.

3. I must apologize for mooting the matter again, but the late Jaghiredar's grandson, whose case I had to enquire into for submission to Government in 1855, has earnestly begged me to ask for a reconsideration of his request, which has not, in point of fact, been as yet negatived by Government.

1. From the correspondence noted in the margin, it appears that the pension in question, amounting to Rupees 500 per mensem, was granted for life in the year 1855, to the present incumbent, Zora Begum, who is a Gosha lady, and the widow of the son of the last Jaghiredar of Runjanagoody. The allowance was paid until 1859 from the Verdachellum Talook Treasury in South Arcot, to her Vakeel, as she herself was residing at the time in the Trichinopoly District, where it was understood that she possessed landed property.

2. About this time, the sufficiency of the life certificates furnished by the Local Officers in Trichinopoly came to be questioned, and as the widow herself desired the arrangement, the pension was transferred from South Arcot to Trichinopoly where it has ever since been paid.

3. In the month of March last, Mr. Longley, the then Acting Collector of Trichinopoly, recommended an application from the widow to be transferred, either for three years or permanently, to Vellore, in the North Arcot District, remarking that she had no relatives at Vellore, and sought the change on account of ill-health, and the Board submitted the application for the favorable consideration of Government.

4. The Government, however, directed that careful enquiry should be made as to whether there were good and sufficient reasons for her transfer to Vellore where she had no relatives, and also whether there was any ground for supposing that her health needed, and would be benefited by the change.

5. Mr. Longley replied that, through oversight, he had formerly stated that Zora Begum had no relatives at Vellore, whereas the contrary was the fact; and that as she was sick, blind, and imbecile, he would not abide by his former recommendation for her transfer.

6. The Board submitted the above reply for the information of Government, who ordered it to be recorded.

7. The Collector now reopens the matter, and the Board resolve again to submit Zora Begum's request for the favorable consideration of Government.
