Read the following:—

No. 127. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 8th March 1870.

Read the following letter from the Government Solicitor, Madras, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Madras, 3rd March 1870, No. 110.

WITH reference to the Suit No. 435 of 1869, wherein Messrs. Orr and Sons are Plaintiffs, and the Collector of Sea Customs and the Government are Defendants, and in which the High Court at Madras, on the 17th of February last, pronounced their Decree in favour of the Plaintiffs for the sum of Rupees 2,000, and costs, I have now the honour to inform you that the Plaintiffs' bill of costs has been this day taxed, and that I may in consequence be called upon by the Plaintiffs' Attorneys, in the course of a few days, to pay them the amount of damages and costs; I have therefore to request the early orders of Government as to the mode in which I should adjust the payment of the amount of damages and costs, when called upon to do so by the Plaintiffs' Attorneys.

2. I may mention that the amount at present in my hands belonging to Government is Rupees 4,108-15-11.

Read the following letter from the Government Solicitor, Madras, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Madras, 8th March 1870, No. 119.

WITH reference to my letter to you of the 3rd March instant, No. 110, I have now the honour to inform you that I have this day received a letter from Messrs. Shaw and Tasker, the Attorneys for Messrs. P. Orr and Sons, the Plaintiffs in O. S. No. 435 of 1869, stating that their costs have been taxed as between party and party at the sum of Rupees 736-10-0 less the sum of Rupees 45 for costs of execution, the balance therefore payable to them, including Rupees 2,000 for the amount of damages awarded to the Plaintiffs by the High Court at Madras, amounts to Rupees 2,691-10-0.

2. I have, therefore, in continuation of my letter above referred to, to request the orders of Government as to the mode in which I should adjust the payment of the amount of damages and costs.
