Dated Coimbatore 17th January 1877

Sir,

dated 11th January, received 15th, paras
3 & 4.

1. The Board's suggestions about Task work, will be carried into effect—
if contracts can be made with cooly Sangs. What I meant is that the work is measured up, as it were task work, and a full tale of work executed

2. The ticket system was intended chiefly for "grain cases" where the ticket to be produced and to be an order for grain, and a voucher of receipt. It is not necessary for the money daily wage system.

3. As regards tools, the indents, as forecasted for, have now been complied with, and will probably suffice for some time.
