Miscellaneous.

In the Proceedings of Government, 30th November 1868, the claims of certain service Yeomiahdars of Arcot whose allowances had been discontinued were disposed of. The present Petitioners were Nos. 1, 2, 3, and 5 in the list submitted by the Collector of North Arcot.

Their case and that of Nos. 4 and 6 were disposed of in paragraph 3 of the Order thus—"The settlement of the claims of these Yeomiahdars should, therefore, be left over, until further legislation may have put the whole system on a better footing."

2. The allowances made to these Yeomiahdars were confiscated under the Orders of Government, dated 31st August 1860, No. 1,481, Revenue Department, because there was grave suspicion of their having defrauded Government by representing that certain female Yeomiahdars were alive after their decease. As no proof could be given of the said females' decease, the Foujdari Adalut had previously acquitted the prisoners on appeal.

3. Adverting to the fact that the services for which these grants were originally made have been regularly performed, notwithstanding the discontinuance of the grants, and that in punishing the individual representatives of the grantees the
