From

The Ag Deputy Collector
Salt Department

To

J. B. Arbuthnott Esquire.
Offs Collector of Madura.

Sir,

As directed I beg to submit for your kind perusal my testimonials, and request that you will be pleased to lay before Government my application to be confirmed as a Deputy Collector, for their favorable consideration.

There is now a vacancy in the fourth grade of Deputy Collectors. Mr Ward who belonged to the 3^d class retired; and P. Seshagiri Row was promoted from the 4th to the 3^d and transferred to Cuddapah; his 4th Class appointment has not as yet been filled up. The vacancy is further in the line of the arrangement whereby I was appointed.

pointment in the Provinces.

Fort St. George } (Signed) J. P. P. P.
29th September 1858 } Chief Secretary

N. Ramaswamy Moodely has served in the office of the Collector of North Arcot as acting English Record keeper for four months.

I have had the highest reason to be pleased with his conduct and abilities, and should consider his leaving the office for promotion in the Government office from which he came, as a great loss.

June 23rd 1859. (Signed) C. Whittingham

N. Ramaswamy Moodely has come under my notice for the last month that I have been in charge of the Collectorate of North Arcot during the greater part of which I was on circuit, on which occasions he was in charge of the very voluminous English correspondence; he is an excellent steady man of business and of superior attainments.

22nd July 1859 } Sub. Collector

N. Ramaswamy Moodely, Deputy Manager, Public Department, Government Office

Being about to leave Madras I have much pleasure in stating that I consider you a most efficient and valuable public servant. The post you hold is often one of considerable responsibility, requiring both hard work and thorough trustworthiness, I have never known you fail in either. I believe you to be well qualified to fill higher appointments and shall be glad to hear of your advancement.

July 2nd 1864. (Signed) W. H. P. P.
Dy. Secy to Govt.

N. Ramaswamy Moodely has been known to me for a year, during which time he was Deputy Manager of the Chief Secretary's Department in the Government office. I have always been favorably impressed with his carefulness and good management, when we have been brought into more immediate contact. I believe he is and will be an excellent public servant, and as he knows, I shall always be glad to serve him if I can.

Madras } (Signed) C. E. Walker
September 18th 1865 } Under Secretary to Govt.

The Stenistadar is a very hard-working, painstaking public servant. I have every reason to be satisfied with his conduct during the short time I have been in charge of this office. He has rendered me every satisfaction in his power and I shall be glad to hear of his promotion to a post more lucrative and of a higher nature than his present one.

Remarks of the Sub Collector of North

North Arcot as entered in the Roll sent up to the Collector.

N. Ramaswamy Choudelur is of active habits and bears an excellent character and has high testimonials from those under whom he has served; known both English and Telugu well, (in the former he is particularly useful) as also Tamil his native language; has passed the test for Deputy Collector in English and is a graduate of the Presidency College; is well fitted for the post of Tahsildar.

Vellore
