N. Ramaswamy Moodely has served in the office of the Collector of North Arcot as acting English Record keeper for four months.

I have had the highest reason to be pleased with his conduct and abilities, and should consider his leaving the office for promotion in the Government office from which he came, as a great loss.

N. Ramaswamy Moodely has come under my notice for the last month that I have been in charge of the Collectorate of North Arcot during the greater part of which I was on circuit, on which occasions he was in charge of the very voluminous English correspondence; he is an excellent steady man of business and of superior attainments

Being about to leave Madras I have much pleasure in stating that I consider you a most efficient and valuable public servant. The post you hold is often one of considerable responsibility, requiring both hard work and thorough trustworthiness, I have never known you fail in either. I believe you to be well qualified to fill higher appointments and shall be glad to hear of your advancement

N. Ramaswamy Moodeliar has been known to me for a year, during which time he was Deputy Manager of the Chief Secretary's Department in the Government office. I have always been favorably impressed with his carefulness and good management, when we have been brought into more immediate contact. I believe he is and will be an excellent public servant, and as he knows, I shall always be glad to serve him if I can.

The Shristadar is a very hard working, painstaking public servant. I had every reason to be satisfied with his conduct during the short time I have been in charge of this office. He has rendered me every satisfaction in his power and I shall be glad to hear of his promotion to a post more lucrative and of a higher nature than his present one.
