Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
5th Febr[illegible] 1877.

Famine Relief.

No. 133-A. Read the following Proc[illegible]gs of the Board of Revenue, dated 25th January 1877, No. 296:—

Read the following Proceedings of the Mad[illegible]overnment, dated 23rd January 1877, No. 334, Revenue [illegible]rtment:—

Read Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, [illegible] 15th January 1877, Miscellaneous No. 509, requesting to be infor[illegible] with reference to G.O., dated 12th January 1877, No. 107, what a[illegible]s are referred to, and what they are expected to furnish, &c.

THE account referred to is that relating [illegible]ual expenditure in connection with relief-works. The Government are aware t[illegible]e Board are not in possession of complete information on the point, and a referen[illegible]o the Accountant-General elicited the reply that he also had not the a[illegible]ly account furnished by the Accountant-General shows only the total grants, not [illegible]al expenditure.

2. All Government Orders relating to [illegible]olishments, together with copies of the Accountant-General's daily statements, will [illegible]mmunicated to the Board.

(True Ext[illegible]) D. F. CARMICHAEL,
(Si[illegible] Secretary to Government.

THE Board have no information as to th[illegible]penditure on relief-works other than that given in the weekly relief reports, which [illegible]ht to give the whole outlay on such works, and are probably as accurate as they ca[illegible]ade, considering the hurried way in which they are necessarily prepared. The r[illegible]ssity for making them accurate has been impressed upon Collectors, and the Bo[illegible]I do not know how to improve the instructions regarding them. As already subm[illegible]ted to Government the relief report for the 30th December had been forwarded to [illegible]overnment before the telegram to the Government of India was despatched.

2. The Board understand the present orde[illegible]o mean that nothing is now required from them beyond the reports already furnishe[illegible] They submit that it is impossible to compile an account of actual outlay from statem[illegible]nts of grants and Government Orders. They have made a suggestion as to obtaining [illegible]assified statements of actual outlay in submitting to Government Mr. Puckle's rules (Bo[illegible]rd's Proceedings, dated 23rd January 1877, No. 253.
