No. 180. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 8th April 1876, No. 959:—

Read the following letter from G. VANSAGNEW, Esq., Collector of Nellore, to C. A. GALTON, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 14th March 1876, No. 670:—

I HAVE the honor to report the death, on the 11th ultimo, of Hafiza Beebee, who was one of the nicka wives of Abbas Alli Khan, the deposed Jaghiredar of Udayagiri. She enjoyed a subsistence allowance of Rupees 60 per annum.

2. I received a petition purporting to emanate from her in December last, stating that she was likely to die, and begging that on her death Government would be pleased to make a payment to one Ahmed Alli Sahib, whom she called her heir and adopted son, for the expenses of her funeral and the payment of her debts.

3. On her death Sarana Sahiba, a daughter of the deposed Jaghiredar, in receipt of Rupees 70 per mensem from Government, wrote to me announcing the event referred to the above petition, stated the debts to amount to Rupees 200, and begged that a grant might be made as requested in that petition.

4. The deposed Jaghiredar appears to have had two shadi and four nicka wives. The two former are dead, and three of the latter now survive.

5. I may observe that in this family there is little or no distinction between shadi and nicka mariages, both being equally legal. On the deaths of the two shadi wives, the Government in their Orders, dated 2nd February 1866, No. 279, and 13th February 1868, No. 409, granted Rupees 240 to defray the funeral expenses.

6. But when in 1873 I recommended a similar grant of Rupees 200 in the case of Beebee Sahiba, who was the first wife of the father of the deposed Jaghiredar, the Board opposed my recommendation, and Government in their Order thereon, dated 11th March 1874, No. 331, stated "the application for the funeral expenses is unusual, and cannot be acceded to."

7. I confess I fail to see why the Board should have recommended and the Government sanctioned grants on the deaths of the deposed Jaghiredar's widows in 1866 and 1868, and should have refused to adopt the same course in 1874 in the case of the widow of the deposed Jaghiredar's father. The application was at all events not an unusual one as supposed by the Government.

8. I trust the Government will be generous enough to make a moderate grant in the present instance.

SUBMITTED for the favorable consideration of Government.

2. In reporting the death of Hafiza Beebee, who held a life pension of Rs. 60 a-year as nicka widow of the deposed Jaghiredar of Udayagiri, the Collector recommends that a moderate grant (amount not stated) be sanctioned for payment of her debts (Rupees 200) and her funeral expenses. In support of the application he cites the cases of two other widows of the Jaghiredar in which similar indulgence was shown. In each of these, Rupees 240, a-year's pension, was sanctioned, G.Os., 2nd February 1866, No. 279, and 13th February 1868, No. 409. In the more recent case of the Jaghiredar's step-mother Government refused to grant any thing, remarking that applications for funeral expenses are unusual, G. O., 11th March 1874, No. 331. The Collector trusts that a moderate grant will be sanctioned in the present instance.

3. Considering that similar indulgence was shown in the cases of the other widows of the ex-Jaghiredar, the Board recommend that a grant of Rupees 100 be sanctioned to defray Hafiza Beebee's funeral expenses. They are unable to support the Collector's application for a grant for payment of debts.

Submitted for the favorable consideration of Govt.

In reporting the death of Hafiza Beebee who held a life pension of Rs 60 a year as nika widow of the deposed Jafaridar of Hanyagiri, the Collector recommends that a moderate grant (amount not stated) be sanctioned for payment of her debt (Rs 200) and her funeral expenses. In support of the application he cites the cases of two other widows of the Jafaridar in which similar indulgence indulgence was shown. In each of these Rs 240, a year pension, was sanctioned. G.O. 2 February 1866 N-279 and 13 February 1868 N-409.

In the more recent case of the Jafaridar's etc. mother Government refused to grant anything remarking that applications for funeral expenses are unusual. G.O. 11 March 1874 N-331.

The Collector trusts that a moderate grant will be sanctioned in the present instance.

Conceding that similar indulgence was shown in the cases of the other widows of the ex-Jafaridar the Board recommend that a grant of Rs 100 be sanctioned to defray Hafiza Beebee's funeral expenses. They are unable to support the Collector's application
