Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 1st March 1869.

No. 5. Read the following letter from the Under Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Accountant General, North-Western Provinces; dated Fort William, 4th February 1869, No. 835.

Leave and Allowances.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of Mr. Deputy Accountant General J. Ecde's letter, No. P. A. of the 16th ultimo, and in reply to state that Covenanted Civil Servants when retiring from the service, may be allowed the subsidiary leave which is admissible to them under Section XI. of the Rules of the 16th June 1869, when they proceed on furlough, provided the leave can be granted without detriment to the public service.

Ordered that the foregoing letter be published in the Gazette of India, and communicated to the Foreign and Home Departments; the Governments of Bengal, Madras, Bombay, the North-Western Provinces, and the Punjab; the Comptroller General of Accounts; the Director General of the Post Office of India; the Accountants General in Bengal, Madras, Bombay, the Punjab, and British Burmah; and the Deputy Accountants General in the Central Provinces, Hyderabad, and Mysore.

No. 6. ORDER THEREON, 1st March 1869, No. 113.

Ordered that the foregoing letter be re-published in the Fort Saint George Gazette for general information.

Thirdly, it is in part a result of Government of India policy that Government officials should be recruited from the Indian population. The Government are anxious to increase the proportion of Indian officials in the service. It is of course true that this policy has extended to the recruitment of the Indian Civil Service, and that the Government are anxious to recruit Indian officials to the Indian Civil Service.
