To

The Joint Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Public Works Department, Railway Branch.

Simla, the 1st November 1895.

Sir,

In reply to your letter No.679 R., dated the 10th October 1895, I am directed to communicate the approval of the Government of India to the name, Ganjám and code initials G.A.M. being adopted for the new station on the East Coast (state) railway.

2. I am to add that the final a in the name under reference should, as above indicated, be accented, in accordance with the authorised list of the more important places in Madras which issued under the notification by the Government of Madras in Revenue Department No.212 Revenue dated 4th March 1893.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Assistant Secretary.
