Cuppa Charry; died on the 25th February 1876. Grandson of the original grantee.	The entire allowance was in the enjoyment of the deceased	The deceased left no issue, either male or female, nor a widow, but a nephew (elder sister's son) named Beemasana Charry, aged 42 years, who has dry and wet putta lands measuring Cawnies 13-3-0, assessed at Rs. 57-7-1. These lands have been mortgaged on account of debt said to have been contracted by the deceased Pensioner Cuppa Charry.	The Government, when sanctioning the allowance enjoyed by the deceased in Extracts from Minutes of Consultation, dated 24th April 1854, communicated with the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 8th May 1854, directed that a report should be made on the occurrence of vacancies. This was accordingly done in letter to the Board, dated 26th June 1876, No. 297. But the Board in their Proceedings, dated 26th July 1876, No. 1,916, expressed their opinion that the orders quoted above contemplate the submission of a report regarding claims to the continuance of the allowance to the heirs of the deceased, and directed the submission of a tabular report in the prescribed form. The Collector, in now submitting such report, begs to state that the deceased Pensioner has left no issue either male or female or a widow, but a nephew named Beemasana Charry, vide Column 7. The Collector, therefore, recommends that the allowance enjoyed by the deceased may be continued in the name of the above said Beemasana Charry, with effect from the 26th February 1876. Beemasana Charry appears to have performed the funeral rites of the deceased in the absence of nearer heirs.

Streenivasa Charry; died on the 18th October 1876. Grandson of the original grantee.	The entire allowance enjoyed by the deceased.	Streenivasa Charry, who was in the enjoyment of an allowance of Rupees 16-8-0 as per Government Order, dated 24th April 1854, No. 477, died on the 18th October 1876, leaving two sons, Venkoba Charry and Anumtha Charry, referred to in Column 7, who are living together. The Collector, therefore, recommends that the allowance enjoyed by the deceased may be continued in the name of the eldest son Venkoba Charry from the 19th October 1876. The Tahsildar of Wandewash was ordered, on the 14th November 1876, to disburse the arrears of allowance due to the deceased from 1st April 1876 to 18th October 1876, amounting to Rupees 35-8-9, to the above-named two heirs, Venkoba Charry and Anumtha Charry.

2. In regard to an allowance of Rupees 115-8-0 a year (deduction from the kist-bandy beriz) enjoyed by seven persons in equal shares of Rupees 16-8-0 each, the Board in their Proceedings, dated 6th April 1854, No. 142, paragraph 2, observed that there was no document in support of the grant which appeared to have subsisted for a considerable period, certainly from the assumption of the country. They therefore recommended that it should be continued to the seven sharers subject to report on the death of each in respect to the further extension of his share. This was sanctioned in G.O., dated 24th April 1854, No. 477, paragraph 2.

3. In the statements above recorded the death of two sharers is reported. In the first case the deceased, Cuppa Charry, has left no issue, his nearest heir being a nephew, sister's son. In the second case, Streenevassa Charry has left two sons. The allowances are so small as to be of little assistance to the heirs who, it is observed, have lands sufficient for their support. In these circumstances the Board see no reason to recommend the continuance of the lapsed shares.

IT is observed that both these allowances were assigned as compensation for charitable grants of land made by former Governments on the resumption of such land. Consequently, under the Standing Orders, they are to be continued to a man's heirs, including heirs by adoption even.

2. In one of these cases the deceased left sons; in the other a sister's son, who is in the line of heirs according to the Hindu law of succession in force in the Madras Presidency (Vol. VI, High Court Reports, page 278).

3. The stipends must therefore be paid to these persons as recommended by the Collector.
