No. 153. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 8th December 1868, No. 8,599.

Read the following letter from the Collector of Ganjam, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Chetterpore, 31st October 1868, No. 1,176 :—

1. A vacancy having occurred in the post of "Superintendent of Sea Customs and Conservator" at the port of Ganjam, I have appointed Mr. Mark Broom thereto. No passed candidate has applied, and as the charge of the Custom House and of the conservancy of the harbour is a joint office at all the three* principal ports of the district, it is absolutely necessary to appoint seafaring men. The Government for this reason, on the recommendation of the Board of Revenue, approved the appointment of Mr. Leonhard to Gopaulpore, and I beg to apply for similar sanction in the present case.

Revenue Department, Government Order, 28th August 1865, No. 2,008.

2. Mr. Broom, whose character is well-known to the third Member of the Board, was twelve years at sea, his last situation being Mate of a coasting vessel. Lately he has been Salt Superintendent at Ganjam, and he is one of the few who keep their health at that insalubrious station.

SUBMITTED to Government, with the Board's recommendation that, for the reason stated by the Collector, Mr. Broom may be exempted from passing the test prescribed for the appointment.

No. 154. ORDER THEREON, 12th January 1869, No. 74.

Miscellaneous.

1. Under the circumstances stated by the Collector, the Government sanction the appointment of Mr. Broom as Superintendent of Sea Customs and Conservator at the port of Ganjam, although he has not passed the required Special Test.

2. The Board will, however, request Mr. Carmichael to report upon Mr. Broom's qualifications and knowledge of the laws relating to Ports and Customs in India, after six months' tenure of office.
