Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 22nd March 1869.

No. 568.

Miscellaneous.

Dated 22nd March 1869, No. 791.

1. With advertence to the Income Tax Bill which appears in the Gazette of India of the 8th instant, and which is likely to be passed into law on the 20th instant, the Right Honorable the Governor in Council requests, that the Board of Revenue will consider, whether any, and, if so, what special establishment will be needed to carry into effect the provisions of the bill in the town of Madras, and in the provinces. The Board's report should be submitted, if possible, before the expiration of the present month.

2. It is observed, that in the general Budget Estimate of the Government of India, a provision of Rupees 3,00,000 has been made under Income Tax charges, for 1869-70, against a provision of only Rupees 2,10,000 for License Tax charges in the Budget Estimate of 1868-69, and a provision of Rupees 2,00,000 in the regular estimate of the same year.
