Bombay 23 August 1869.

Dear Sir,

Will you do me the favor to have a brief notice of the Rainfall in the Madras Presidency, the prospects of the season and the state of the public health, posted to me as soon as possible after receipt of this letter, for the second number of the "Economist."

My object is to bring under "a bird's eye view" the general condition of every part of the country at the close of each month, and I must I fear trouble the local Governments to give me the substance of any reports.

I am
Dear Sir,
Yours very faithfully
R. Knight
Secy. Econom.
