Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
23rd February 1877.

Famine Relief.

No. 744-A. Read the following letter from C. S. CROLE, Esq., Officiating Additional Sub-Collector, to F. R. H. SHARP, Esq., Acting Collector of Nellore, dated 19th February 1877, Extra No. 2:—

I HAVE the honor to enclose copy of Memorandum received from the Deputy Accountant-General, and to respectfully solicit the favorable consideration of Government in respect of the following application:

2. I had been acting as a Sub-Collector, Small Cause Court Judge, or Sub-Secretary to the Board of Revenue uninterruptedly from March 1867 until my departure on furlough (sick leave) in July 1875. From July 1868 until the latter date I had been acting Sub-Collector of the Madras (now Chingleput) District, and in the receipt of Rs. 1,205-5-4 per mensem.

3. On the 5th instant, I was appointed Officiating Additional Sub-Collector for special famine duty in Nellore, and from the enclosed Memorandum it appears that my salary as such will be only Rs. 1,144-11-7.

4. While thus deputed on arduous duty, involving great responsibility and exposure, and entailing considerable extra expense, it appears that I shall actually draw Rs. 61 less than in the comparative ease of the Sub-Collectorate of Chingleput.

5. The recent extension of time granted to two members of the Civil Service, who would otherwise have been compelled to retire under the rules, has injuriously affected promotion. Moreover, of my juniors one is an Acting Session Judge and another Acting Collector, while several are drawing salaries in excess of mine.

6. I have, therefore, the honor respectfully to approach Government with the request that, under the circumstances above detailed, a concession similar to that granted to Mr. Price when lately on the like duty in the Bellary District may be made to me, and that Government will be pleased to pass to me the allowances of an Acting Collector.

ENCLOSURE No. 2.

From W. DONALD, Esq., Officiating Deputy Accountant-General, to C. S. CROLE, Esq., Acting Additional Sub-Collector of Nellore, dated Madras, 8th February 1877, No. 606.

Is informed that under Order, dated 5th February 1877 (Gazette page 94, Part I of 1877), he is entitled to draw pay at the rate of Rupees 1,144-11-7 per mensem with effect from the date of joining his acting appointment.

2. Details of the calculation are given below:—

	RS.	A.	P.
Pay	733	5	4
Acting allowance	268	14	3
House-rent	35	0	0
Fixed tentage	87	8	0
Total	1,144	11	7

3. Items marked should be drawn on a separate bill. During transit from Madras he is entitled to subsidiary leave allowance at Rupees 541-10-8 per mensem.

N.B.—This slip should be sent to the Treasury attached to the first bill on which the pay here notified is claimed.

Off. school sub collector
J. P. W. Sharp, Esq.
City collector & plan.

Sir,

I have the honor to enclose copy of a Memorandum received from the Deputy & Assistant General and to respectfully solicit the favorable consideration of Government in respect of the following application.

2. I have been acting as a sub collector, small land court judge, or secretary to the Board of Revenue, uninterruptedly from March 1875 until my departure on furlough (sick leave) in July 1878. From July 1878 until the latter date I have been acting sub collector of the Charnock (now Chingapat) District, and in the receipt of Rs 1205-5-6 per mensem.

3. On the 5th Instant, I was appointed

id. offg. & occasional sub collector
for special duty in & follow
and from the enclosed memo: it appears that my salary as such will be only Rs. 1144-11.

4. While thus occupied on arduous duty involving great responsibility and exposure, and entailing considerable extra expense, it appears that I shall actually draw Rs 101 less than in the comparative ease of the sub collector of Chingleput.

5. The recent extension of time granted to two members of the Civil service, who would otherwise have been competes to retire under the Rules,
has injuriously affected promotion & honor of my juniors, one is an acting session judge, and another acting collector, while several are drawing salaries in excess of mine.

6. I have therefore, the honor to respectfully to approach Government with the request that, under the circumstances above detailed, a concession similar to that granted to Mr. Price, who has late on the like duty in the Bellary District, may be made to me, and that Government will be pleased to pass

to me the allowances of an acting collector.

The question is - has
Mr. Crook's deputation to Mellum prevented his getting a confirmed Sub
