Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 12th January 1870.

No. 167. Read the following Proceedings of the Government of India, Financial Department, (Separate Revenue—Customs,) dated Fort William, 28th December 1869, No. 3,271:—

Read—

The under-mentioned correspondence on the subject of revising the Tariff in respect to the duty on galvanized corrugated iron:—

Endorsement of the Government of Bombay, No. 1,568, dated 16th April 1869.

Letter to the Government of Bengal, No. 504, dated 18th May 1869.

Letter from Government of Bengal, No. 3,070, dated 17th August, and its enclosures.

Letter to the Governments of Madras and Bengal, No. 3,219, dated 8th September 1869.

Letter from the Government of Madras, No. 2,937, dated 9th November 1869, and enclosures.

Letter from the Government of Bengal, No. 4,023, dated 20th November 1869.

RESOLUTION.—The Governor-General in Council considers that it is unnecessary at present to make any alteration in the tariff-value of corrugated iron.

2. Copy to Governments of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay, with the remark to the Government of Madras that the practice, indicated in paragraph 4 of the letter of the Collector of Sea Customs, No. 996, dated 29th September 1869, of charging import-duty ad valorem, is contrary to the decision of the Government of India, conveyed in the letter from this department, No. 157, dated 30th May 1868. According to that decision, galvanized corrugated iron should be charged as sheet iron, under Article 27 of the Import-tariff. Under Act XII. of 1869, the value has been fixed at Rupees 100 per ton. Import-duty on corrugated iron should be levied accordingly until further orders.
