No sunnad. The Incumbents have enjoyed the grant from a long time & their names are registered in circular accounts.	For keeping a light in a mak-khan.	By descent.	16th February 1859.	The allowance of Rs. 60 enjoyed by Saiyad Buddan and Saiyad Hussain has been registered in the name of Saiyad Buddan alone Vide. M. C. dated 16th February 1859. No. 211.
No sunnad. The claim to the Yomiah is founded on long enjoyment.	For rendering service at a Dar-mah.	Do.	9th October 1835.
As per sunnad of Mr. Alexander Reid.	For in trust- ing children.	By descent.	16th January 1835.	The original yomiah granted to Narasimma Josi amounted to Rs. 35 per annum, and it descended to his eldest son. Vidijosi after whose death in Fusli 1237, it was registered in 2 shares of Rs. 17-8-0 each in the names of Narasimma Josi the son, and Seetarama Josi the brother of the deceased. Seetarama Josi's share descended to his son Lutchama Rama Josi in Fusli 1230, and subsequently in 1845 to his brother Saraswaty Josi. This person died in 1850 without issue, and his share was conferred on his mother Cuppamal for life, Narasimma Josi's share was then ordered to be continued to his family on hereditary tenure.
Held under sunnad from the Cuddapah Nawab.	For educating the children of the Nawab.	Do.	18th June 1853	The grant was registered in the names of these persons by order of Government, dated the 16th January 1835.
Under Tipu Sultan's sunnad.	Charity	Do.	11th September 1837.	The original amount of this Yomiah was Rs. 6-13-7 at the death of the 1st grantee, the allowance was conferred on his widow Fuktum Shah who died in 1833. It was then directed in Government orders dated 11th September 1837 and 17th October 1837 that the Yomiah should be reduced to half its original amount, and registered in the names of these incumbents.
Under sunnad from Tipu Sultan.	Charity	By descent.	16th January 1835	This Yomiah though granted as a charity was in fact a subsistence settled on the family and descendants of one Meer Mahommed who died in Battle at Arcot fighting for Tipu. The Yomiah first settled on Mir AKarum was Rs. 150. It was continued to his son Mir Ahmad at the reduced rate of Rs. 136-12-7 at the death of Mir Ahmad in Fusli 1240, a minute enquiry was held in regard to the heirs of the deceased, and a full report was furnished to the Board on the subject in 1834. The Government directed in Minutes, dated the 16th January 1855 that the Yomiah should be continued in the following proportions Mir Jaffer..... 61-12-7 Nunnabi..... 25-0-0
Under sunnad from Tupu Sultan.	For subsistence.	Do.	17th December 1850.	The Yomiah was granted in the first instance for imparting instruction to children. The amount at first was Rs. 126-0-0 After the death of the original grantee the yomiah was continued to his eldest son at reduced rate of 84 Rs., as per Board's order dated 30th April 1818. At the demise of the eldest son it was settled on his brother by sanction of Government dated 25th May 1835. This his brother died leaving two widows, Patchabi and Lalbi, and last yomiahdar died leaving two widows, Patchabi and Lalbi, and Government ordered that one third of the yomiah should be conferred on each of the widows for life. Of these 2 widows, Patchabi died on the 19th September 1865.
No sunnad.	For subsistence.	By descent.	28th April 1835.
Under Sunnad from Cuddapah Nawab.	Do.	By right of descent.	28th April 1835.	The original amount of this yomiah was Rs. 142-6-0; at the death of the original grantee it was continued to his brother Hussain Beg, who died in Fusli 1239, the yomiah was then conferred on his heirs of whom the present incumbent is the sole survivor.
