Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 2nd March 1877.

No. 87. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 23rd February 1877, Miscellaneous No. 2,737 :—

Read the following letter from W. S. FOSTER, Esq., Collector of the Godavery District, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Cocanada, 26th January 1877, No. 33.

With reference to paragraph 3 of the Board's Proceedings, dated 5th ultimo, No. 3,060, I have the honor to report that the 2nd English Clerk on my establishment, who has to attend to the magisterial registry of shipping and some other important work under the Deputy Collector in charge of the Account Department being well up in the business connected with the Customs Department has been entrusted with it. Under the present arrangement the returns from all out-ports, including Cocanada, are now received in this Office by the 3rd, the checking of these and the compilation of the district returns ordinarily take up three days for him, and they are thus despatched to the Board on the 7th or 8th. Steps have now been taken for the closing of the accounts of the out-ports a few days before the end of the month, as directed in paragraph 2 of the Proceedings under reference, in which case I can expect them by the 1st, and shall be able to despatch my statements on the 5th, that they may reach the Board's Office at least by the 10th or 11th. Under any circumstances, I do not consider that the clerk now employed on this work would be able to prepare the statements for despatch early enough to reach the Board's Office at least by the 10th or 11th, unless an Assistant be given him, whom I find very difficult to spare without interfering with the efficient working in the other departments. I therefore request the Board would be pleased to obtain the sanction of Government for the employment of an additional clerk even on Rs. 15 per month.

SUBMITTED for the orders of Government.

After the new forms of trade accounts were introduced, four additional clerks were allowed to the Collector of Malabar, three to the Collector of Sea Customs, Madras, and one on a salary of Rs. 35 to the Collectors of each of the other maritime districts, except Godavery. No clerk was allowed to this district, as the Collector did not apply for one; but he now states that a clerk is absolutely necessary, and requests that sanction may be accorded for the entertainment of one on a salary of Rs. 15.

2. The work in Godavery is not less heavy than in several other districts, to which additional clerks have been allowed. The Collector's omission to apply for one at the commencement appears to have been due to his reliance on the peculiar qualifications of a clerk who was then in charge of the work.

3. The Board recommend that a special clerk be sanctioned; but they think that the salary should be Rs. 35, which is the rate allowed in the other districts and not Rs. 15. It is desirable that there should be a well-paid clerk in each Collectorate, specially responsible for the preparation of the trade accounts.
