Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department.
7th January 1867.

No. 62. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 7th December 1866, No. 8,703 :—

Read the following letter from the Acting Collector of Madras, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Sydapett, 15th October 1866, No. 321.

1. I have the honor to report the demise of Yeomiahdar Munjili Beebee, an event which occurred in Madras on the 5th of October 1865.

2. The Yeomiahdar was an allowance granted to the family of the Jaghiredar of Satumpauk and Poondy, in the North Arcot District, in lieu of his resumed Jaghire. The Jaghire was conferred on Mahomed Nazeed Khan Bahadoor by the Nabob Wallajah.

3. When Nazeed Khan died he was succeeded by his son, Najeeboodeen Khan Bahadoor Salar Jung. On the death of this individual, the Jaghire was resumed by Government, and a pension of 1,050 Rupees per mensem was conferred on Ghulam Ally Khan, the eldest son of the deceased.

4. On the death of the latter, his younger brother, Hyder Ally Khan, received two-thirds of his allowance, or Rupees 700 a month. But on the 26th March 1821, Government, in an order on the subject, conferred half of the amount on the other members of the family. Hyder Ally Khan thus enjoyed Rupees 350 per month. On his death two-thirds of this sum were struck off, and the remainder was conferred on his sister, Munjili Beebee, who became the head of the family, and succeeded him.

5. When she obtained her new position, Munjili Beebee lost her separate allowance, which had been allotted to her when half of the pension originally granted to Hyder Ally was distributed among the subordinate members of the family. This separate payment amounted to Rupees 12-8-0 a month. It lapsed to Government.

6. Munjili Beebee has left a daughter, named Beema Beebee, who seeks to succeed to her mother's pension, less a third, which reverts to Government by her mother's demise. She prays that, as her mother's sole surviving legitimate relative, she may be considered the third life of the three lives for which the pension was originally granted, and receive Rupees 116-10-8 a month.

7. She, in the same manner as her mother before her, enjoyed a separate pension, previous to becoming the head of the family, out of the allotment to subordinate members. This allowance she will now lose. It lapses to Government.

8. When her mother died, there was owing to her, on account of her pension, undrawn, Rupees 270-15-6. Sanction is solicited to pay this sum to her daughter Beema Beebee, to continue to Beema Beebee a pension of Rupees 116-10-8 per mensem, and to pay her the arrears of this pension, accruing from the date of her mother's decease, up to the 30th ultimo, • Rupees 147-15-9. less her separate allowance of Rupees 12-8-0* per mensem, which she has hitherto received as usual.

9. The payments in arrears* due her are shewn in the margin.

10. Her present application has been opposed by two illegitimate mem- bers of the family, named respectively Mahomed Jaffer Ally and Mahomed Hamed Ally. These persons receive a monthly payment of Rupees 3½ each, out of the allotment to subordinate members. They now state that they have a legitimate connection with the family, and that they are the sons of the original Yeomiahdar, by a Nikka wife named Paupa Beebee.

24th February 1821.

They have been silent since 1821, when the Honorable Murray, then Collector of Madras, reported to the Board. He had reason to know Paupa Beebee had been merely the concubine of Gulam Ally.

Statement shewing the amount of arrears due to the under-mentioned Yeomiahdar, in the District of Madras.

The allowance due to her for September and up to 5th October 1865, the date on which she died, not having been drawn, it is now recom- mended that the arrears, or Rupees 270-15-6, be paid to her daughter, Beema Beebee.

*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
7th January 1867.*

1. The Board have verified the Collector's Statements, and they find them correct.

2. They accordingly resolve to submit the foregoing papers to Government, with the recommendation that a monthly pension of Rupees 116-10-8, (being one-third of the pension, Rupees 350, originally assigned to Hyder Ally Khan with the approval of Government, conveyed in their Secretary's letter, dated 20th March 1821, No. 244, Revenue Department,) be sanctioned to Beema Beebee, the daughter of the present deceased, the sanction to have effect from the 6th October 1865, the day following that on which her mother died.

3. A sum of Rupees 270-15-6 is shown in Statement A., accompanying the Acting Collector's letter, to have been due to the deceased, as arrears of pension for one month and five days, at the time of her death; payment of which sum should be made to her daughter.

4. As it appears, however, that Beema Beebee herself has been all this time in the receipt of a small share, amounting to Rupees 12½ per mensem, of the original allowance granted on the resumption of the Jaghire of Satumpauk and Poondy, the aggregate amount thus received by her from the 6th October 1865 will have to be deducted from the payments above recommended, and the latter pension must be considered as lapsed to Government.

5. The exact sum recommended to be disbursed to Beema Beebee, subject to the audit of the Accountant General, is thus Rupees 1,504-2-8, as shewn below:—

Arrears of her mother's pension from 1st September, to 5th October 1865, at 2,800 Rupees per annum ...	RS. A. P. 270 15 6
Arrears of reduced pension now recommended, viz., Rupees 116-10-8, minus the pension of Rupees 12-8-0 per month, already received from 6th October 1865, to 30th September 1866 ...	1,233 3 2

	Transferred from North Arcot District.	Ruppes 5,000 per annum, or Ruppes 233-5-6 per month.	Government, 15th May 1826.	No original document from Government, but a certificate given by the Collector in the form of a grant.	Bounty.	Gowiam Ally Khan.	Munjili Beebe, sister of the original grantee.	The whole pension was enjoyed by Munjili Beebe alone.	Beema Beebe, daughter, aged 44 years.	The family entirely depends upon the allowance granted by the Government. Beema Beebe lived with her mother. Her separate pension of Ruppes 233-5-6 per month will now, that she has become the head of the family, and is entitled to the whole of the family allowance, be paid to her.	The Jaghire of Satumpauk and Poondu, in North Arcot, was resumed, and the Jaghirdar's family granted an allowance of Ruppes 12,000 per annum. On the death of the head of the family, his younger brother, Hyder Ally, succeeded him, and the pension was reduced to Ruppes 8,000 per annum; half of which was, by Order of Government, dated 26th March 1821, subsequently distributed amongst the other members of the family. On the death of Hyder Ally, his sister, the deceased, became the head of the family, and she lost her share of the pension which had fallen to her on its partition. The pension was then reduced to Ruppes 4,000 per annum, but she succeeded in obtaining under the orders of 1821, but she succeeded in two-thirds of the pension enjoyed by her brother Hyder Ally. She received Ruppes 233-5-6 per month. According to the terms of the original grant of the pension, which was for three lives, another one-third of the pension was to be paid to Hyder Ally's son, and the remainder, which is Ruppes 116-10-8, now decreed to the daughter, named Beema Beebe, of the deceased. On her death, the pension will lapse altogether, and no payment to a head of the family will continue to be made. Beema Beebe is further entitled to the arrears of the allowance in which she succeeds, minus the sum of her separate allowance accruing since her mother's death, which occurred on the 8th October 1865. She is entitled, up to the 31st September last, to Rs. 1,231-5-2; and for the payment of which to her is solicited, as will be mentioned to pay her a pension of Ruppes 116-10-8 per month.	The applicant, Beema Beebe, now enjoys a separate pension of Ruppes 12-0-0 per annum, under the orders of Government, dated 20th March 1821. In case of her death, the pension will lapse altogether, and no payment to a head of the family will continue to be made. Beema Beebe is further entitled to the arrears of the allowance in which she succeeds, minus the sum of her separate allowance accruing since her mother's death, which occurred on the 8th October 1865. She is entitled, up to the 31st September last, to Rs. 1,231-5-2; and for the payment of which to her is solicited, as will be mentioned to pay her a pension of Ruppes 116-10-8 per month.
