Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
28th April 1869.

No. 571. Read the following letter from the Government Pleader, Madras, to the Acting Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort Saint George, dated 17th March 1869, No. 243 :—

With reference to the Orders of Government, Revenue Department, marginally noted, I have the honor to mention that I have been informed, by the Advocate-General and the Government Solicitor, that it has been the practice, when the Government have required the advice or assistance of the former Officer in matters falling within the scope of the duties of the Government Pleader, to pay him the usual fees. Being a Barrister I am not in a position to instruct the Advocate-General, or to mark his fees, and therefore I would suggest that, when references of this kind are made, the most convenient plan would be to direct the Government Solicitor to instruct the Advocate-General, marking the usual fees. This, I believe, was the practice when Mr. Dale was Government Pleader

G O, 12th February 1869. No. 364.
,, 15th March ,, ,, 690.

2. If the Government should think fit, this might be done now in the case of the reference by the second of the above-mentioned Government Orders. With regard to the former reference, I would suggest that the Government Solicitor be directed to pay the Advocate-General the usual fees for his advice and assistance already given.

No. 575. Order thereon, 28th April 1869, No. 1,113.

Miscellaneous.

Ordered accordingly that the Government Solicitor be directed to pay to the Advocate-General the usual fees for his advice and assistance in the two references quoted by the Government Pleader.
