Read the following letter from the Collector of Nellore, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 20th February 1869, No. 313.

THE Tahsildar and Sheristadar of the Nellore Talook having attended on the Rajah of Vencatagherry when he entered into the Town of Nellore on account of the Agricultural Show, the Rajah has, in return, presented two shawls to the Tahsildar and one shawl and a cloth to the Talook Sheristadar.

2. And I have the honor to request the permission of the Board to allow them to keep the above presents. The value of the two shawls presented to the Tahsildar are estimated at about Rupees 120, while the shawl and cloth given to the Sheristadar are valued at about Rupees 50.

3. The Tahsildar and Sheristadar have taken great pains in making all the numerous arrangements requisite on the occasion of the late Show; and I should be glad if they could be allowed to retain in their possession so pleasing a souvenir.

THE Board resolve to forward the Collector's letter for the orders of Government, with a recommendation that the Tahsildar and Sheristadar of Nellore be permitted to retain the shawls presented by the Rajah of Vencatagherry on the occasion of the Exhibition.

2. Similar indulgence was allowed by Government in their Orders, dated 10th February 1863, No. 292, and 17th January 1866, No. 125.
