2. No particulars have up to date been received from the Accountant-General, regarding stoppages from the salaries of Government officials at the Presidency. The figures entered in Form No. 16 are, therefore, exclusive of these stoppages. The Accountant-General's statement will be submitted separately when received from him.

3. Delay has unavoidably occurred in the submission of these Returns in consequence of the repeated references to Collectors which were rendered necessary by the many discrepancies found in the original statements received from them.
