Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 3rd May 1869.

No. 29. Read the following letter from the Accountant-General, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 12th April 1869, No. 12 :—

I HAVE the honor to request that you will have the goodness to inform me whether the Secretary and Treasurer of the Bank of Madras was correct in making no deduction from the allowances paid to His Highness Prince Azeem Jah in this month on account of Income-tax. Under the late Income-tax Act, the allowances of His Highness were held to be taxable; and it seems to me that under the present Act also they are subject to the incidence of the tax.

No. 30. ORDER THEREON, 3rd May 1869, No. 1,201.

Miscellaneous.

His Excellency the Governor in Council observes that under Section 6 of Act IX. of 1869 Annuities and Pensions are taxable, and that the Act contains no provision under which Prince Azeem Jah is or can be personally exempted from its operation. He is, therefore, clearly of opinion that Prince Azeem Jah's allowances are subject to the incidence of the tax.
