Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 7th May 1867.

No. 107. Read the following Circular from the Government of India, Financial Department, (Separate Revenue—Assessed Taxes), dated Fort William, 26th April 1867, No. 2,108:—

The Governor General in Council is pleased to declare that against British subjects in Foreign Territory not employed in the service of Her Majesty it is not the intention of the Government of India to press the demand for License Tax, and the public servants of a Foreign State employed in Foreign Territory are clearly exempt from the incidence of the tax. Only the servants of the British Crown are to be considered as public servants within the meaning of Section 20, Act XXI. of 1867. All the members of the last class are taxable without reference to the question whether or not the funds for the payment of their salaries are provided by a Native State.
