Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 9th May 1867.

No. 153. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 25th April 1867, No. 2,527.

Read the following letter from the Collector of North Arcot, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Circuit Camp at Chendragherry, 12th March 1867, No. 62:—

1. I have the honour, with reference to the Proceedings of the Board, dated 22nd August last, No. 5,991A, communicating Order of Government, dated 10th idem, No. 2,034, Revenue Department, to report that Syed Jallal, referred to in paragraph 1 of the Order, is the son of Syed Meer, the elder brother of Syed Mahommed, the deceased Yeomiahdar. Syed Meer is a pensioned Subadar, and is now alive. The deceased Yeomiahdar appears to have always lived separate from his brother Syed Meer.

2. Zoharu Bibi deposes that Syed Jollal and his father have usurped the service of the Durgah and turned her out, and that if he (Syed Jallal) were appointed to do duty in the Durgah and receive the allowance, he would pay her nothing, and therefore requests that her own brother, Syed Cassim, be appointed to perform the duties.

3. As the widow Zoharu Bibi and her infant daughter are, under the Mahommedan law, the proper heirs of the deceased, I have the honour to repeat my recommendation that the registry of the Yeomiah be made in the name of the widow Zoharu Bibi.

1. Submitted to Government, with reference to their Order dated 10th August 1866, No. 2,034. One Syed Mahommed, a Yeomiahdar receiving Rupees 58-15-10 per annum for defraying the expense of maintaining the Durgah of Afth Syed at Arnee, having died, the Collector of North Arcot recommended that the allowance should be continued to his widow, and the Yeomiah be registered in her name in preference to that of Syed Jallal, the nephew of the deceased, a youth aged eighteen years, and who, the Collector had reason to think, would insufficiently support the widow if he secured the full control of the allowances.

2. The widow's name was Zoharu Bibi, and she has an infant daughter by her late husband.

3. The Board, with reference to the orders noted in the margin, which authorize them to continue Yeomiahs to heirs in cases where the allowance is hereditary, reporting their proceedings for the confirmation of Government, registered the Yeomiah in the name of the widow Zoharu Bibi.

† G. O. No. 1,719, dated 27th August 1861.

4. The Government desired to know whether Syed Jallal was the legal heir of the deceased.

5. The foregoing letter is an answer to their question. Syed Jallal is not the legal heir.

6. The Board indeed are somewhat at a loss to discover how he can be in any way related to the deceased.

7. From the Proceedings of the Board, on which the Proceedings of Government, No. 1,093, dated 26th October 1844, are founded, it would appear that the deceased was the grandson of Maha Shiba Bibi, the Yeomiahdar up to February 1843, when she died, and that he was permitted to succeed her in right of that relationship.

8. This order of succession would seem to imply that Maha Shiba had no living issue, and that Syed Mahommed was her only grandson.

No. 154. ORDER THEREON, 9th May 1867, No. 1,058.

Miscellaneous.

The Government confirm the order of the Board of Revenue sanctioning the registry of the Service Yeomiah of Rupees 58-15-10, held by the late Syéd Mahomed, in the name of his widow Zoharu Beebee,
